THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Oscar Romero, Archbishop of San Salvador, was martyred in 1980 while celebrating mass in the chapel of a hospital in El Salvador. He was an outspoken critic of government corruption, military abuse, and oppression of the people in his native country; and he was convinced that the heart of the gospel is centered on God's compassion for the poor and freedom of all people. In Joseph, we see how the holy family of Jesus suffered and became totally homeless at the hands of a tyrant ruler. In our baptism we pledge to strive for justice and peace in all the earth. We join with all the saints in hearing God's call and working for freedom for all people.
